Agenda 2030 in Malmö, Sweden

Frida LeanderOffice for Sustainable Development
City of Malmö

www.malmo.se/globalamalen

frida.leander@malmo.se Twitter: @fridaleander

Malmö

The average age is

38,5 years

12%

Born in Sweden with foreign-born parents

48% in the ages 25-64 years have higher education

5290

More Malmö residents in 2016

178 different countries are represented

t •

32%

Foreign-born

150 600 households, of which about 70% are smaller households with 1-2 persons

Initiation

- Long tradition of sustainable city development
- Agenda 21, 1995-
- The Commission for a Socially Sustainable Malmö, 2011-2013
- Declaration of Cities Commitment to the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda, 2015
- Representing Sweden at the HLPF on Agenda 2030 in July 2017
- Head of municipality board appointed new member (2018) of the Swedish Delegation for the 2030 Agenda, by the government

Goals and priorities

- All 17 goals represented in current municipal goals
- Seven SDG:s more emphasised in current municipal goals:
  - 1. No poverty 3. Good health and well-being 4. Quality education
  - 5. Gender equality 10. Reduced inequalities 11. Sustainable cities and communities 16. Peace, justice and strong public institutions
- SDG 14 Life below water. Malmö became Local Ocean Hub in 2017.
- Gap Analysis will be starting-point for political priorities 2019-2020 new budget process, new municipal goals integrating Agenda 2030

Implementation and next steps

- Financial- and sustainability committee
- Office for sustainable development
- Implementation in budget- and steering system Gap Analysis –
   Sustainability Report with indicators on local level to measure and follow up
- Mapping and examples from 15 departments
- Strategy 2018

Strategy 2018 for the long term implementation of Agenda 2030 in Malmö

Leadership, communication and systemic thinking

- Integrate in existing steering- and management systems
- Sustainable development through operational development
- Planned communication and participation for learning and support/foundation
- Increased knowledge for conscious decisions
- Innovative partnership that make a difference

